Disgraceful Business.

There has been secretly circulated through the mails without even postmarks an anonymous circular, libelous in its character, against Daniel F. Beatty of Washington, N. J., proprietor of the Beatty Piano and Beatty's celebrated Golden Tongue Parlor Organs.

It is supposed to have been done by competitors in the business, as none others would be to the trouble and expense, even if they had no fear of the punishment if detected, and the cause is attributed to the fact that Mr. Beatty has been making a very successful war upon high prices in those instruments.

We have received from Mr. Beatty the following open letter addressed to him by the officials and prominent men of his own town.

WASHINGTON, N. J., July 5, 1877.
To Daniel F. Beatty, Esq.:

It having come to our knowledge that communications written with an intent to falsify you and injure your business, have appeared in a certain periodical, we therefore, as citizens of this place—having known you for years—consider it an act of justice to you to pronounce all such communications to be entirely uncalled for and slanderous, and endorse you as being, so far as we have ever been able to judge, a man of sterling integrity and prompt in all your business transactions. Signed, Nathan Hilts, Mayor; Alpheus Babcock, G. A. Thatcher, Henry Winter, and Wm. E. Cummins, Councils; Joseph Vleit, Judge of the Court; James H. Groff, Vice President, and P. H Hann, Cashier First National Bank; Rev. J. J. Reed, Pastor M. E. Church (acquainted but few months); J. V. Creveling, Jos. A. Shrope and John C. Winter, Justices of the Peace; John Gardner, Sheriff, and Richard B. Shaffer, Deputy Sheriff of Warren county; A. W. Creveling, General Merchant; Philip Johnston, late Assessor, and others.

I certify that I am acquainted with the hand writing of the above, and recognize all of them as genuine. The gentlemen are of our best citizens, and I fully concur in the letter.

OSCAR JEFFERY,
Counselor-at-Law and Notary Public.

We can hardly conceive of a more complete answer to such a libel than the above letter, but Mr. Beatty requests all interested to address him for full reply, and asks for information touching the parties circulating the libel if any can be obtained, with a view to their prosecution and punishment.

BEATTY'S ORGANS.—Having furnished one of Beatty's fine Parlor organs, for the Heath House, Schooley Mountain, N. J., we are in receipt of an acknowledgement, under date of Thanksgiving day, in which Mrs. J. W. Coleman, wife of the host, says: "We are also thankful for the additional pleasure of all, in listening to the delightful tones of the beautiful organ that now ornaments our parlor, it having arrived just in time for the day. Our daughter is perfectly infatuated with it, and handles it very nicely. We were handsomely received by Mr. Beatty at his warerooms."—ALPINE CHRONICLE.

KATE CHASE SPRAGUE.

Her Ambition to see Her Father Nominated for the Presidency.

Mrs. Sprague always appreciated the honors which attach to official station, and, after her father was made the presiding officer of the Supreme Court, it was as the daughter of the chief justice, rather than the wife of a Senator, she desired to be known. She rarely appeared at evening parties except with her father, whom she almost idolized, and for whom her ambition was boundless. She had never been quite the same person since his death decided against the hope, so long cherished, that she would see him in the White House enjoying the highest office in the gift of the people, and that she would there reign as the "first lady in America."

One who knew the inside history of the Democratic nomination for the Presidency in 1868, and was constantly with Chief Justice Chase and Mrs. Sprague through the weeks before Seymour was nominated, has told me of how earnestly Mrs. Sprague watched the manipulations of the party machine, and how hopefully she counted on the result. Her father, when the news was told to him of Seymour's success (says my informant who carried it to him), said at once: "Have you seen Mrs Sprague? How does she bear it?" His first thought was for her and her disappointment. She felt the postponement of the gratification of her desire keenly, but bore the news like a stoic. She did not despair until four years later of eventual success. During the months preceeding May, 1872, she was again as active a worker as possible to a lady of refinement to secure the Presidential nomination at Cincinnati by the Liberal party. One of the most beautiful of all the recherche fetes over which she presided in Washington was given on an evening just before the delegates and members of the press started to the Cincinnati Convention, and not one person in Washington, who could by any possibility influence the convention, was omitted in issuing the invitations. Prior to that time Mrs Sprague had been so exclusive in her hospitality and in arranging her visiting list that she was by no means generally popular, while no one refused her beauty and graces admiration.

One of her objects in giving the entertainment to which I refer was to exhibit her father in his improved health. His frequent illness had been more than once of sufficiently serious a character to cause him to be counted out as a possible choice for the presidency of any party. He was much better at that time, and it was essential that the public should be made aware that he was by no means hors de combat. He stood at his daughter's right hand to receive the guests, and each on speaking to him was told that he had walked in from Edgewood, his country place, about two miles out of town. That was the last large entertainment given by Mrs. Sprague in Washington. A year later her father died, and in less than a year thereafter her husband failed in business

In Mississippi a patent has been obtained for a method of collecting taxes upon drinks which is far better than the Moffet or Clarke register. Books of coupons are sold by the State Auditor to all liquor dealers. When a drink is sold the consumer receives a coupon, which entitles him to receive from the State, in payment of his taxes, one cent. If two drinks are to be paid for he receives an orange colored coupon good for two cents. If five drinks, a blue paper good for five cents. Not only does the State enjoy an income from the tax on drinks, but the consumer has a reasonable chance of paying off his taxes with the orange and blue coupons. The saloons are crowded all times with men making out their taxes.

A novel method of courtship exists among the native Indians of Ecuador. The lover goes to the woods and obtains game which he presents to the maiden. This is the proposal. If she accepts, she cooks the meat. Thus the suitor knows the lady's capacity for cooking, and she can judge somewhat of his ability to provide food.

Young Men.

The writer has seen a vast number of young men in his time; in short, we are one ourselves, and of course take a vital interest in their welfare, and always rejoice with exceeding gladness when it is our privilege to see a young man climbing higher, whether it be in the social, financial, intellectual or spiritual life—they are all good; but our heart is sad when we see the opposite state of things. Should any such as we are addressing chance to read these lines, let us say to them, to always assert their manhood. If you are engaged in business, strive to reach higher in all that is good and noble; if you are a clerk, salesman, porter, or in service in any capacity whatever, endeavor to prove yourself worthy, that you may be invited up higher—be faithful in small things, and it will bring its reward. If you are a gentleman of leisure, leave off that course of life; push out some place, somewhere, anywhere, short of the grave, rather than be a drone in this great, busy world of ours. Do something! Be somebody! Command respect from your fellow-men. But you will never do it if you are a habitual idler. We like the pluck of the young man we met recently in search of employment. Said he: "I will have work at something or other, if I have to work six months for nothing." Such a man as that, as a general thing, is not idle very long at a time.

THE LEADERS OF WASHINGTON SOCIETY.—Years ago Lord Lyons, then the English Minister, imported a coachman. He was a first-class man, and it was not long before he was well known. Soon afterward he began trading horses, and made a great deal of money. Following that, he went into the grocery business in what is known as the old "First Ward" of Washington, and accumulated more money. He married, and a son came into his family. When the father died he left plenty of money, which his son inherited, succeeding him in the grocery business. The son was too proud, however, to stick to it, and he gave it up, and invested his money in other ways.

About the time the English coachman came here, a French cook, direct from France, arrived here, and secured employment with the French Minister. He also was married and, had three or four daughters. Like the coachman, he amassed a great deal of money, and increased it by fortunate real estate speculations. He owned several squares of property in the neighborhood, since bought up by Hallet Kilbourne's real estate pool.

The son of the coachman married the daughter of the cook, and they are to-day the leaders of Washington society.

General George Washington was precise in dress, and probably had many a pleasant little vanity of his own. In the camp at Cumberland (1755) there was but one mirror, and that set in the end of a powder horn used by his friend and comrade, Colonel Zachary Lewis. By this mirror General George shaved his chin every morning and completed his toilet. The powder horn is now in possession of Colonel Lewis' descendants, resident in Richmond. The horn is still suspended upon the plaited leathern string by which it hung at the soldier's side.

The best reason for excluding the gentler sex from the turmoils of political life, is to be found in the following argument: A courteous Frenchman in reply to the question why women were not admitted into the Chamber of Deputies, said that to be a member it was requisite to be forty years old, and it was impossible to suppose that any lady could reach that unseemly age.

THE CHRONICLE.

SATURDAY, MARCH 9, 1878.

County Official Press.

LEGISLATIVE.

We have compiled the following from the Sacramento Record Union.

The following bills have been introduced in the Senate:

By Mr. Brown of El Dorado—An Act to provide for the purchase of certain toll roads in the county of El Dorado. Provides for the purchase of toll roads by the State.

Relating to succession and distribution of estates.

Relative to delinquent taxes.

The following bills have been introduced in the Assembly:

An Act restricting the State Board of Education from making certain certain contracts and to provide a system of text books for use in the public schools in the several counties of this State.

Relative to discharge from arrest in civil actions.

An Act to regulate the collection of assessments.

Concerning the collection of poll-taxes If poll-tax is not paid to the Assessor it becomes a lien on other property assessed to said person.

An Act to reorganize and simplify the school system of public education of the State of California.

An Act to provide for the payment of taxes, licenses, salaries, fees, debts and liabilities in any lawful money of the United States, whether gold, silver or legal tender paper.

In relative to eminent domain.

An Act to protect stockholders in corporations by stopping their officers from depositing the corporation funds in banks to their individual credit.

An Act to regulate and provide for the payment of the fees of medical experts as witnesses in civil and criminal actions in the Courts.

In relation to the perpetuation of evidence by State and county officers.

Mr. Nott introduced an Act to amend section 4.219 of the Political Code, in relation to the duties of County Auditors.

In relation to water rights.

An Act for the protection of game and fish.

Relating to the general powers of Boards of Trustees and of Education.

The Assembly passed;

An Act to prevent the sale of oleomargarine under the name and pretense that said commodity is butter.

An Act to amend section 137 of the Civil Code, in reference to the husband providing for the support of the wife during unlawful separation or proceedings for divorce.

An Act relating to the civil government of military companies.

To exempt certain property from execution. Exempting 75 bee-hives.

An Act to prevent buck goats from running at large,

Concerning the times of the assessment and equalization of taxes.

The following bills have passed both Houses:

Assembly Bill No. 182—An Act to prevent the circulation of bogus election tickets, and to prevent fraud upon voters.

Senate Bill No. 182—An Act for the increase and preservation of forest areas of the State.

Assembly Bill No. 429. Provides that section 17 of the Fee bill passed at the last session of the Legislature, relative to the Assessor's office, shall not take effect until after the expiration of the term of the present incumbent.

Assembly Bill No. 334—An Act to authorize a tax for the payment of grand and trial jurors in the county of Alpine.

Assembly Bill No. 436—an Act to provide for a Convention to frame a new Constitution for the State of California.

The following bill has been approved by the Governor:

Senate Bill No. 42—An Act to amend section 113 of the Code of Civil Procedure so as to change the time for the election of Justices of the Peace in the several counties of the State.

George W. Abbott, the broker who absconded from San Francisco a short time ago with $40,000 or $50,000 belonging to his partner and the Anglo California Bank, was captured on the Panama steamer at Acapulco by U. S. Consul John A. Sutter, Jr., and is now on his way back.

Pope Leo XIII, was crowned in Sistine Chapel at Rome, on Sunday last. He is to reside at Castle Gondolfo, fourteen miles Southeast of Rome, in order to be away from the Italian Government.

The conclusion of peace between Russia and Turkey was announced by Grand Duke Nicholas at San Stefano on Sunday last. Russia abandons her claim on the Egyptian and Bulgarian tributes.

A party of Eastern capitalists are going to look at the route from Battle Mountain to Austin, Nevada, with the intention of building a railroad between those points.

The Legislature has but three weeks longer to live, and its death will be a fortunate thing for the State.

Charles C. Nahl, the well known painter, died at San Francisco on Saturday last.

About 700 bills have been introduced in the Assembly.

The workingmen of Sacramento have nominated a full ticket for city officers.

MORE WHEELS.—Another set of wheels is being prepared to roll the Supreme Court down to Los Angeles. The Assembly has passed a bill providing for sessions of the Supreme Court at Los Angeles. If such a bill should become a law our Supreme Judges will have as great a circuit as many of our District Judges are blessed with. It may be well enough to have a session of that Court in San Francisco, but there is no sense in rushing it all over the State at the expense of the people. Let those having business before that tribunal go where it is now located. Such a bill is for the benefit of lawyers only, and the fees of a Supreme Court lawyer are not so small that he cannot afford the time and expense attending such a visit to the Capital.

A VETO.—The Governor has vetoed the bill appropriating $25,000 in aid of the sufferers by the disastrous floods that have devastated the valleys below and ruined hundreds of families. It is to be hoped that the Legislature will pass it over his veto. Such an act is discreditable to Governor Irwin. A more meritorious bill has never passed a California Legislature.

The Assembly has passed a railroad bill after wrestling with the subject for several days. It does away with the Transportation Commission, and provide for the election of a Commission in 1876. The Lieutenant-Governor is to act as Commissioner until one is elected.

It is stated that our government will recognize Diaz at an early day.

THE CHRONICLE.

SATURDAY, MARCH 9, 1878.

County Official Press.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

SETTLING UP.—Cyrus Palmer President of the Advance Company, is at Monitor paying the Company's indebtedness. We are glad to notice a disposition among the creditors to give the Company a good show to get out of its difficulties.

WILL BE CLOSED.—The sale of the English mines in Scandinavian canon by the Sheriff will take place on Saturday next, our English cousins being too slow in liquidating. In the hands of a live San Francisco company these mines would soon be paying.

ROAD BROKEN.—We can now have communication again with the outside world, the road to the Exchequer Mill having been opened. The stage will probably put in an appearance on Monday evening.

PASSED.—The Legislature has passed the bill, introduced by Mr. Nett, providing for the pay of grand and trial jurors in this county. We know nothing of its provisions, excepting that it allows jurors two dollars a day.

ANOTHER.—After a first-class gale on Tuesday night a snow storm set in on Wednesday, and continued all day, leaving an instalment of the "beautiful" to work off the old snow.

DELINQUENT SALE.—The Sheriff will sell property for delinquent taxes on Saturday next—the 16th. Settle up gentlemen, and save your property.

TO "A SUBSCRIBER."—We regret that we could not publish obituary lines sent us from Woodfords. Our columns were too crowded.

TO-DAY.—The sale of the delinquent stock of the Advance Company will take place at San Francisco to-day.

Noah Blossom has been appointed Postmaster at Genoa, Nevada.

DEFEATED.—The biil introduced in the Assembly providing for the posting, instead of advertising, the delinquent tax list in counties of less than 10,000 inhabitants, was indefinately postponed. Such a bill would have been unconstitutional, and would have made the delinquent sales illegal in 31 counties. The Supreme Court has decided that real estate must be advertised before it can be sold.

J. Sexsmith, a miner, fell 240 feet down a winze in the California mine at Virginia, on the 6th, and was instantly killed.

Congress is hopelessly behindhand with its work, and the prospect is said to be excellent for an unprecedentedly long session.

The failure of Leo XIII, to mention Pius IX, in his coronation speech, has provoked much unfavorable comment.

San Francisco has loaned to capitalists of that city $787,000 at 3 per cent a year and $50,000 at 4 per cent.

Ex-Senator Benjamin F. Wade died at Jefferson, Ohio, Saturday last.

The Cuban insurrection has ended, the insurgents daily surrendering.

THE DELIGHTFUL FRAGRANCE OF MURRAY and Lanman's Florida Water is quite different and distinct from the perfume of any other preparation. It is so refreshing and bracing that it may with truth be called a tonic exhilerant, of rare power and virtue.

BIRTHS.

MONTGOMERY.—At Markleeville, February 2d, to the wife of Robert Montgomery—a son.

At Markleevill, to the wife of R. Smith—a son.

At Woodford's, to the wife of W. P Merrill—a daughter.

DEATHS.

BARNUM.—At San Francisco, February 25, Johannah, wife of Henry Barnum, and mother of W. G. Barnum, of Silver Mountain, a native of Utica, N. Y. aged 55 years and 10 months.

Hot Water for Bruises and Injuries.

The New York Medical Journal reports this case: The patient was engaged in a machine shop, and while his hand was upon the anvil of a trip hammer, the hammer—weighing 700 pounds—fell. It so happened that a file was on the anvil, and in this way the force of the hammer was arrested about half an inch before it reached its bed. When the hand was examined it was found that the whole palm was a mass of pulp.—The metacarpel bones were comminuted extensively, and there was apparently but small chance of saving the hand.—It was, however, placed in hot water, and kept there for two or three weeks, and then taken out and dressed.

In three months the patient was sufficiently well to leave the hospital, and now—nine months after the accident—he is able to move the fingers, and has quite a useful hand." Bruises and injuries do much better when treated with hot than with cold water. The temperature should be about 103 degrees F. Another case is reported of compound fracture and dislocation of the ankle joint, in which the proximal end of the first metatarsal bone protruded from the foot. The dislocation was reduced and the foot placed in hot water. At the end of a week it was taken out and dressed in the ordinary manner. The foot is now doing well and promises a good result.

The Death of a Bulgarian.

When the head of a Bulgarian family perceives that he is about to die he sends for the priest and begins to bargain with him about the cost of his funeral. The moment he dies all the pots, pans, and kettles in the house are turned upside down to prevent his soul taking refuge in any one of them, and great care is taken to prevent either man or animal—especially a cat or dog—from stepping across his body, as otherwise, in the opinion of his family, he would turn into a vampyre and be a continual nuisance to them and to their neighbors. The body is buried without any coffin, in a shallow grave, and left there for three years, during which time many offerings of food and wine are placed upon it. At the end of the third year the bones of the dead man are dug up, carefully washed, put into a linen bag, laid before the altar in the village church; and after receiving the blessing of the priest, are finally buried for good.

MEN who use their muscles imagine that men who depend upon their brains are strangers to hard work. Never was there a greater mistake. Every successful merchant does more real hard work in the first ten years of his business career than a farmer or blacksmith ever dreamed of. Make up your mind to work early and late if necessary, that you may thoroughly master the details of the business upon which you propose to enter. The habit of persistent rapid work once formed, you have gained a momentum that will very satisfactorily carry you many a pinch in business where a less persistent worker would find it vastly easier to lie down and fail.

Judge Walton edified the lookers-on at Skowegan, Maine, the other day, though the bar looked a little solemn. He was about to sentence a criminal, when he discovered the chap cosily seated in the bar with his attorneys. The judge manifested great surprise, and requested that hereafter the criminals might be placed outside the bar, so that he could distinguish them from their counsel.

The want of the age is condensed homœopathic drinks, in the shape of pills, so that a fellow can carry a happy drunk in his vest pocket and become beastly without going out between acts and disturbing the congregation.

No Irishman ever made a greater bull than the English lawyer who drew up an indictment charging that the prisoner killed a man with a certain wooden instrument called an iron pestle.

People with little children around the house should remember that down where they (the babies) are, the atmosphere is several degrees colder than up where the grown folks live.

Stanley says that one African native become so fond of him that he begged Stanley as a favor, to kill and eat him.

The common foible of women who have been handsome is to forget that they are no longer so.

That Terrible Scourge.

Fever and ague, and its congener, bilious remittent, besides affections of the stomach, liver and bowels, produced by miasmatic air and water, are both eradicated and prevented by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a purely vegetable elixir, indorsed by physicians, and more extensively used as a remedy for the above class of disorders, as well as for many others, than any medicine of the age. A languid circulation, a torpid state of the liver, a want of vital stamina, are conditions peculiary favorable to malarial diseases. They are, however, surely remedied by the great Preventive, which, by invigorating the system and endowing it with regularity as well as vigor, provides it with a resistant power which enables it to withstand disorders not only of a malarial type, but a host of others to which feeble and ill-regulated systems are subject. The Bitters are a safe as well as searching eradicant, and have widely superseded that dangerous drug, quinine, which palliates, but does not eradicate malaria.
